

Unrestrained media consolidation by the FCC has reduced consumer choice and variety in radio programming in the FM world. Please do not reduce it further by limiting XM Radio's satellite business model. Most users of XM Radio are radio refugees from the homogenized FM world that the FCC created with lobbyist friendly consolidation rulings. Please do not repeat the FCC's recipe for destruction on the exciting and diverse world of satellite radio.